

Dear Brothers & Sisters in Christ,
 The Archdiocese of Indianapolis will be participating in the annual collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development this weekend. Your support for this collection brings change to communities across the country and empowers those living in poverty to transform their communities into reflections of the Kingdom of God. 25% of the funds collected are retained to provide grants to local projects, such as the Stone City Alliance for Recovery and Hope in Bedford, IN. to meet the basic needs of disadvantaged men in Lawrence County. Your support of CCHD reaches out to peoples living on the margins and lifts them out of the cycle of poverty. Be assured that all CCHD national grants are approved by the bishop in the diocese where the groups are located. Please prayerfully consider how you can help CCHD this year. Sincerely yours in Christ,
 Archbishop Charles Thompson

The Weekend of November 9 & 10, 2024
Thirty-second Sunday of Ordinary Time

We believe that everything we have ultimately comes from God. God gave us life to begin with, offers us the gift of new life through Christ Jesus, and blesses our lives every day. We hope to imitate God's generosity through our own actions. The readings we hear today offer a lesson in finding a way to respond generously to the gifts we have received, no matter our state in life. They also remind us not to judge the generosity of others. Listening to God's word, may we be reminded of our obligation to give back to God, as God has generously given to us..
