The Weekend of November 1 & 2, 2025 Solemnity of All Saints

We are a needy people. We stand before God as someone in need. No matter Last Sunday we heard Saint Paul, knowing he would likely die soon, writing his close friend and fellow apostle, Saint Timothy, "I have competed well; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith." Today we honor all those men and women who live a good and faith-filled life, whom we believe have received the "crown of righteousness," as Paul put it, and now live life eternally with God. The Church recognizes thousands of saints and no doubt each of us knows of someone whom we believe must be a saint as well. May that inspire us to live our Christian faith through hardship and doubt, and join them to live eternally with God.
